

Milo Voisard – Clarinettist

Date of Birth: 22.02.2010

Residence: Delémont, Switzerland

Sensitive and highly musical, Milo thrives in technical compositions that showcase his virtuosity. He also enjoys slow pieces, through which he expresses his musical maturity.

Finalist of Prodiges – Season 10, in 2023

Milo impressed the jury and audience, continuing his ascent to musical greatness.

"I am fascinated by your breath and musical maturity"

Gautier Capuçon (Prodiges Jury Member and Cello Star)

"We touch the divine, you have a beautiful career ahead of you"

Marie-Claude Pietragalla (Prodiges Jury Member and Star Dancer)

His participation in Prodiges allowed him to fulfill one of his dreams: performing with the Divertimento Orchestra under the esteemed conductor Zahia Ziouani.

Background

At the age of 5, Milo began learning the clarinet at the Jura School and Conservatory of Music in Delémont with his teacher Simon Stettler. Active in the Union Instrumentale de Delémont band, the Shostakovich harmony, and the Sports-Arts-Studies structure of the Canton of Jura, he has excelled in numerous music competitions from a young age.

A natural competitor, he collects podium finishes, notably at the 2024 LEOPOLD BELLAN International Competition - Junior in Paris (1st Prize unanimously – Clarinet and Jury Prize with qualification for the 2025 adult final), the 2022 Louis Cahuzac International Clarinet Competition in Versailles (2nd Medal), the 2024 Junior Slow Melody Contest – “woodwind” Champion in Valais, and the Jura Soloists and Ensembles Competition where he was the 2023 “woodwind” Vice-Champion.
